

CV Track & Field Booster Club and CV Cross Country Booster Club sponsor the Melissa M. Huang Memorial Scholarship. This $1,000 scholarship is dedicated to the distance running community within Track & Field and Cross Country. It continues the tradition of recognizing an individual's accomplishments in education and athletics. It is awarded to one Cumberland Valley High School Senior that has completed a minimum of two years on the CV Track and Field AND CV Cross Country Teams, including their senior year. The applicant must be pursuing college after graduation.

To apply for this scholarship, submit to the high school guidance office the following:

- Essay explaining in your own words why you are seeking this scholarship and your future plans upon graduation. Your letter should describe how your work ethic has helped you in your athletic and academic career.
- Completed Scholarship Application
- Copy of your most recent transcript issued by the Guidance Department
- Letters of recommendation (optional)

Melissa was a dedicated athlete and an exceptional student. She may not have been number one on the team but always gave 100% in everything she pursued. A 2003 CV graduate and 5th in her high school class, she was a standout runner on the 4 X 800 relay team that set a CV school record and finished 3rd in the State. She was a student in the School of Engineering and Applied Sciences at Princeton University.
