If the last day of any time period or time limit specified in this Article falls on a non-working day, the time period or limit shall be extended to the next following working day.

B. Since it is important that a grievance be processed as rapidly as possible, the number of days indicated at each level shall be considered a maximum. Failure at any step of this procedure to communicate the decision in writing on a grievance within the specified time limits shall permit the aggrieved person to proceed to the next step in the procedure. Failure at any step of this procedure to appeal a grievance to the next step within the specified time limits shall be deemed acceptance of the decision rendered at that step.

C. All grievances shall be presented as soon as practical after the occurrence upon which the same is based, but in no event later than ten (10) working days. The failure to submit a written grievance within such period shall constitute a bar to the processing of the grievance.

D. Where a grievance cannot be resolved at a lower step of the procedure, upon written request of the Union, the employer may waive, in writing, the processing of the grievance at such step and allow it to proceed directly to a higher step.

E. Time limits may be extended by written mutual consent of both parties.

F. In the event any employee or the Union exercises any right of appeal to court or an administrative agency concerning a subject appropriate for a grievance under the provisions of this Article, they shall be deemed to have waived their right to bring a grievance based upon the provisions of this Article or the occurrence which is the basis for such appeal, and any such grievance already instituted shall be barred from further processing if such an appeal is filed unless referred back to the grievance process.

§3. Procedure

Informal Step

Before a formal grievance is filed, the employee or his representative shall request an informal meeting with the immediate supervisor in an attempt to settle the grievance.

Step I.

If the matter is not satisfactorily adjusted in the informal meeting, the person or persons initiating the alleged grievance shall present the grievance, in writing and on a form, as attached hereto and made a part hereof, to the immediate supervisor or other appropriate level of management within ten (10) working days after its occurrence. The immediate supervisor shall reply, in writing, to the grievance within ten (10) working days after initial presentation of the grievance. The grievance shall contain a written statement of the facts, the dates of occurrence, the names of the grievants, the specific Sections of the agreement alleged to have been violated, and the remedy sought.

Step II.

If the action in Step I above fails to resolve the grievance to the satisfaction of the affected parties, the grievant, or his or her representative, shall transmit the grievance, together with a written statement of the reasons for dissatisfaction with the immediate supervisor's response to the grievance, to the Superintendent within ten (10) working days of receipt by the grievant of the immediate supervisor's written disposition. The Superintendent shall reply in writing within a period of ten (10) working days.

By mutual agreement between the Superintendent and the Union representative, informal hearings or conferences may take place at this step of the procedure in an effort to clarify facts, issues or positions and/or to facilitate settlement of grievances where possible.

Step III.

If the action in Step II above fails to resolve the grievance to the satisfaction of the affected parties, the grievant, or his or her representative, shall transmit the grievance, together with a written statement of the reasons for dissatisfaction with the disposition of the grievance by the Superintendent, to the Secretary of the Board, with a copy to the Superintendent, within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Superintendent's written decision. The Board shall render a decision in writing within ten (10) working days following its next regularly scheduled meeting.

Step IV.

If the action in Step III above fails to resolve the grievance to the satisfaction of the affected parties, the grievance may be referred by the Union to binding arbitration, as provided in Section 903 of Act 195 provided such referral is made in writing within ten (10) working days following the date of the decision referred to in Step III. Notice of such appeal shall be given in writing to the Superintendent. The parties shall equally bear the cost of arbitration.

Each case shall be considered on its merits and the collective bargaining agreement shall constitute the basis on which the decision shall be rendered. The arbitrator shall be without jurisdiction to render an award contrary to law or to add to, modify, vary, change or remove any term of this Agreement.
